Procedure for Monitoring Grants in the U S	Part I, Line 2	Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 MEMBERSHIP For our membership ($12) financial assistance, we ask Leaders to complete a form for a girl(s) in their troop whose families have a financial hardship For girls in CEP, Simon Project, NYCHA , Break Programs and other targeted initiatives, which serve mostly girls in under-served, low-income communities, we automatically cover the $12 fee The Membership Specialist or Manager process these requests Also, if a girl joins a program such as Scholars or Camp, her family can directly request financial assistance in the context of the overall program cost There is a financial assistance form for Scholars, Camp and our other more expensive programs Families apply on behalf of their girl(s) A point rating system is followed by staff in determining the level of awards Critical factors include income, size of family, years in Girl Scouting, etc If after an award is made, and the family still cannot pay the balance we do work with them on a case by case basis to provide a somewhat higher award to ensure girls have the opportunity to participate In all cases, staff must keep financial assistance request, rating form and allocation information for the respective program on file On rare occasions, we make a group determination in enrolling a class of girls for a program (e g NYCHA troop going to camp) This is based on funds available, size of troop and troop history SCHOLARSHIPS Our Scholarships are handled by either volunteer and/or staff committees who rate and rank applications or essays as well as conduct interviews in some cases or by Scholars Program class instructors who work with students during the nine sessions of Scholars and based on their attendance, participation and course work determine awardees No family member, leader or other person with a personal connection to a girl is allowed to make any scholarship determination Any person in such a relationship to a girl is asked to remove themselves before the review process begins There are criteria established for each scholarship, often based on grant or endowment requirements
